ST. THERESE OF LISIEUX LADY OF THE FLOWER

St. Therese loved nature, and often used the imagery of nature to explain how the Divine Presence is everywhere, and how everything is connected in God's loving care and arms.

What did she do that was special? _____

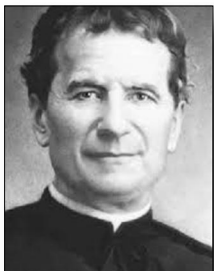

Your Name _____

Kids: Research and return this to your PSR Teacher or Ms. Amy by 10/18 to be entered into drawing for a prize!

The Bosco Bugle is a new, monthly publication for children and families of the Bosco community informing you about Children's Masses, Young Family Events, and CYC & PSR news. To contact editor, email Amy.Cutrell@stjohnboscostl.com.

LET THE CHILDREN COME

St. John Bosco is our patron saint. Even as a young man, he literally dreamt of helping others. He started by entertaining them by juggling and walking a tight rope. Once he had their attention, he taught them and took them to mass. He dedicated his life to the neglected youth of Italy. He said, "It is not enough to love the young. They must know they are loved."
